The
SCHOOL-O-VISION
SONG CONTEST

As you may, or may not be aware, we launched our end of year production to all children. This year, we will be putting together a performance of 'The School-o-vision Song Contest'. The children have already taken to this incredibly well and have learnt many of the songs. Keep looking at them at home: we can't wait for our performance dates.

End of Year

As we are heading into the end of the year, there are going to be a lot of events including: step-up day, graduation, end of year festivities and shirt-signing to name a few. Please keep eyes on the Portway Press where there will be key dates for you all to see.
